Dear Store Manager,

I've been eating Yo Pitts! Foods' condiments for a while now. Just a few days ago, I took the last scoop from the depths of my final jar.

"I'm out of Yo Pitts! Foods' condiments."

I took a look at the condiments in your condiment section and didn't see any Yo Pitts! Foods' condiments. I'd love to buy it locally from your store. I emailed Tom and the family to see about carrying it here. They're definitely up for sending you information or samples. Here's some information he sent along:

- Minimum order: 2 cases or 24 jars you can mix & match, too!
- Direct ship is available
- Sampling allowance of 1 jar per case.

They are family. The Pitts Family!

You can find out more about their products at www.yopittsfoods.com.

I hope you consider carrying their condiments. They are truly are amazing. Is there any way you can carry it? Even if it's just a couple flavors...?

Please contact Tom at any of the ways below to get samples.
